EXCLUSIVE - In Carpugnino, on the hills of Stresa a few kilometers from the lake, its offer for sale an old historic farmhouse from the 1800s with a front and back garden. The entrance from an ancient door opens us onto the property which was the home of illustrious ecclesiastical figures of the past of the area and retains the architectural charm of the past. The property is on two floors divided by a large internal staircase located in a central position, as well as mezzanine floors with independent bedrooms, a large cellar floor with vaulted ceiling, storage rooms in the back and a very high attic area. Partially renovated internally in some rooms, half of the building already has a radiator heating system. In the back and adjacent to the building, two portions of a rustic house with closets and barn, as well as a portion of the raised flat garden once used as a vegetable garden. The entire surface is approximately 350 commercial sqm and needs a complete renovation. Right of way to other owner in rear yard. Historic home of the pla ...
